   whichever date is first relevant, and
(b) the claimant is not cohabiting with another person, except where -

(i) the claimant proves that throughout the year either the claimant or the claimant’s cohabitee is totally incapacitated by physical or mental infirmity, and that a third person is maintained or employed by the claimant for the purpose of having the charge and care of the child, and

(ii) neither the claimant nor any other individual is entitled to a dependent relative allowance in respect of the person so employed or maintained or if the claimant or any other individual is so entitled that the claim has been relinquished.

Provided that where the recipient of a family allowance in respect of one or more children is not entitled to claim the charge of children allowance because the claimant is cohabiting with another person, the claimant may, in respect of the year of charge, by notice in writing addressed to the Director, elect that the whole, or any unused part of, the personal allowance to which the claimant would otherwise be entitled shall cease to be the claimant’s and shall become part of the personal allowance of the person with whom he is cohabiting, such election, once made, to be irrevocable in respect of that year of charge. Such additional personal allowance shall be reduced at a ratio of £1 of allowance for every £3 where the assessable income of the individual is above the equivalent of the upper annual earnings limit as determined by the Employment and Social Security Committee, for that relevant tax year.

For the purposes of this paragraph "cohabiting" means living with another person as if they were married throughout the year of charge.

(3) The claimant shall have relinquished any claim to a housekeeper allowance or to an infirm person's allowance for that year.

(4) Where an individual is entitled to claim a dependent relative allowance in the case of a child receiving higher education he shall, for the purposes of the preceding paragraphs numbered (1) to (3), be treated as if he were in receipt of a Family Allowance in respect of the said child.

Provided that if there are two such individuals the charge of children allowance shall be apportioned between them in proportion to the amount or value of their respective contributions towards the maintenance of that child.

(5) Not more than one allowance shall be granted to any claimant for any year.
7. Retirement Annuity Allowance

(1) The conditions to be fulfilled to entitle a claimant to a retirement annuity allowance are that the claimant pays a premium or makes a contribution to a retirement annuity scheme or to a retirement annuity trust scheme approved under the provisions of section 157A of the Income Tax (Guernsey) Law, 1975 and of which he is a beneficiary.

(2) Subject to the provisions of the next succeeding paragraph the qualifying premiums or contributions, as the case may be, shall be the amount of any premium paid or contribution made by the claimant during the year of computation of the income of the claimant assessable for the year of charge.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding paragraph no allowance shall be given in respect of any qualifying premiums or contributions to the extent that, in aggregate, they exceed:

(a) 100% of the income of the claimant during the year of computation referred to in the preceding subparagraph, or

(b) any retirement annuity contribution limit for the time being prescribed by Regulations made by the Department.

(4) In the case of a married couple or couple who have entered into a civil partnership:

(a) for the avoidance of doubt, the allowances specified in this paragraph apply in respect of each party to the marriage or civil partnership, and each party to the marriage or civil partnership may be considered to be the claimant for the purposes of this paragraph, irrespective of whether the couple are jointly assessed or separately assessed by virtue of an application under section 46 of the Income Tax (Guernsey) Law, 1975, and

(b) for the purposes of this paragraph, and notwithstanding subparagraph (1), either party to the marriage or civil partnership may also pay (and an allowance may be granted in respect of) qualifying premiums or contributions to a retirement annuity scheme or retirement annuity trust scheme of which the other party is a beneficiary, provided that the maximum allowance granted in respect of any individual may not exceed the limit prescribed in subparagraph (3).
