PROJET DE LOI

ENTITLED

The Supplementary Benefit (Guernsey) Law, 1971

THE STATES, in pursuance of their Resolutions of the twenty-sixth day of March, nineteen hundred and sixty-nine, and of the twenty-fourth day of June, nineteen hundred and seventy, have approved the following provisions which, subject to the Sanction of Her Most Excellent Majesty in Council, shall have force of law in the Islands of Guernsey, Herm and Jethou.

PART I

Determination of need for a supplementary benefit

[Eligibility for a supplementary benefit.]

1. (1) A person, whose resources are insufficient to meet his requirements, is eligible for a supplementary benefit under and in accordance with this Law (hereinafter referred to as a "supplementary benefit") if –

- (a) the person –
 - (i) is over the age of 18 years,
 - (ii) is no longer in full-time education,
 - (iii) is ordinarily resident in Guernsey, and
 - (iv) satisfies such other, or further, conditions relating to residence in Guernsey, as the States may by Ordinance provide, and

(b) in the case of a person who has not attained pensionable age, that person, and any relevant dependant of that person –

(i) are in full-time remunerative work, or

(ii) are acting in compliance with work requirements relating to them, and

(c) in the case of a person who has attained pensionable age, any relevant dependant of that person –

(i) is in full-time remunerative work, or

(ii) is acting in compliance with work requirements relating to him.

(2) [The Committee] may by regulations prescribe modifications and exceptions to, and exemptions from, subsection (1) including (without limitation) –

(a) exceptions to subsections (1)(a)(i) and (ii),

(b) modifications deeming a person, or any relevant dependant of a person –

(i) to be in full-time remunerative work, or

(ii) to be acting in compliance with work requirements, and

(c) exemptions from subsection (1)(b).

(3) In this section –

"full-time remunerative work" shall have the meaning given by regulations of [the Committee],

"relevant dependant" means a dependant who has not attained pensionable age, but who is over school leaving age and no longer in full-time education, and

"work requirements" means measures determined by the Administrator for the purpose of facilitating or enabling an individual, or such class or description of individuals as the Administrator may determine, to become, or continue to be, engaged in full-time remunerative work, including (without limitation) measures directing such an individual, or class or description of individuals –

- (a) to engage with work, or work-related, activities,
- (b) to attend work-focused meetings held, or organised, by [the Committee], and
- (c) to attend a work, or training, placement.]

NOTES

The Law is applied to the Island of Alderney by the Alderney (Application of Legislation) (Supplementary Benefit) Ordinance, 1971, section 1, with effect from 11th June, 1971, subject to the exceptions, adaptations and modifications set out in the right-hand column of the First Schedule to the 1971 Ordinance.

In accordance with the provisions of the Children (Guernsey and Alderney) Law, 2008, section 123, Schedule, paragraph 21 (shown, incorrectly, in the printed version of the 2008 Law as paragraph 20), with effect from 4th January, 2010, this Law is one of those specific enactments that the States may repeal, amend, extend, adapt, modify or disapply, and make transitional and savings provisions in relation to, by Ordinance made under the said section 123.

Section 1 was substituted by the Supplementary Benefit (Guernsey) (Amendment) Law, 2014, section 4, with effect from 1st December, 2014.¹

In section 1, the words "T/the Committee" in square brackets, wherever occurring, were substituted by the Organisation of States' Affairs (Transfer of Functions) Ordinance, 2016, section 5(1), Schedule 3, paragraph 4, with effect from 1st May, 2016.

The following Regulations have been made under section 1:

Supplementary Benefit (Guernsey) Regulations, 2014.

[Persons to whom the Law applies.]

2. This Law applies to a person who is eligible for a supplementary benefit under section 1.]

NOTES

Section 2 was substituted by the Supplementary Benefit (Guernsey) (Amendment) Law, 2014, section 5, with effect from 1st December, 2014.

In its application to the Island of Alderney, section 2 is modified in accordance with the provisions of the Alderney (Application of Legislation) (Supplementary Benefit) Ordinance, 1971, section 1, First Schedule, with effect from 11th June, 1971.

Determination of need for a supplementary benefit.

3. (1) The question whether an applicant for a supplementary benefit is a person to whom this Law applies, whether a person to whom this Law applies is in need of a supplementary benefit, and the amount of any such supplementary benefit to be paid to him, shall, subject to the provisions of this Law or of any Ordinance made hereunder, be decided by the Administrator.

(2) The States shall, from time to time, make provision by Ordinance for the computation of requirements and resources for the purposes of this Law.

(3) ...

(4) An Ordinance made under the provisions of this section may provide that certain assets set out therein shall, to the extent and subject to the conditions set out therein, be disregarded in computing resources.

NOTES

In section 3, subsection (3) was repealed by the Supplementary Benefit (Guernsey) (Amendment) Law, 2014, section 6, with effect from 1st December, 2014.

In its application to the Island of Alderney, section 3 is modified in accordance with the provisions of the Alderney (Application of Legislation) (Supplementary Benefit) Ordinance, 1971, section 1, First Schedule, with effect from 11th June, 1971.

The following Ordinances have been made under section 3:

*Supplementary Benefit (Implementation) Ordinance, 1971;
Supplementary Benefit (Implementation) (Amendment) Ordinance, 1972;
Supplementary Benefit (Implementation) (Amendment) (No. 2)
Ordinance, 1985;*

Supplementary Benefit (Implementation) (Amendment) Ordinance, 2015;
Social Insurance (Guernsey) Law (Amendment) Ordinance, 2016;
Supplementary Benefit (Implementation) (Amendment) Ordinance, 2016.

In accordance with the provisions of the Supplementary Benefit (Guernsey) (Amendment) Law, 2014, section 18, with effect from 1st December, 2014 and for the avoidance of doubt, the Supplementary Benefit (Implementation) Ordinance, 1971 shall continue in force as if made under sections 3, 15 and 15B of this Law as this Law has effect immediately after the commencement of the 2014 Law.

Aggregation of requirements and resources.

4. (1) Where it appears to the Administrator that an applicant for a supplementary benefit is providing for the requirements of some other person being a member of the same household, the Administrator shall, subject to the provisions of this Law, in determining the need for and the amount of a supplementary benefit take into account the aggregate requirements and aggregate resources of the applicant and the said other person.

(2) Where in determining the amount of a supplementary benefit to be paid to an applicant therefor the requirements of another person are taken into account, that other person is in this Law referred to as a dependant of the applicant.

(3) Where a husband and wife are members of the same household, their requirements and resources shall in all cases be aggregated for the purposes of this Law.

(4) Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing provisions of this section, the [Committee] may direct the Administrator that, in determining the need for and the amount of a supplementary benefit to be paid to an applicant therefor, he shall not treat as a dependant of that applicant any person who has attained school-leaving age.

(5) An Ordinance made under the provisions of section three of this Law shall provide, in the case of a person being a member of a household, that the resources of any other member of the household, not being the husband or wife, or a dependant, of the said person, shall not be treated as resources of the said person.

NOTE

In section 4, the word in square brackets was substituted by the Organisation of States' Affairs (Transfer of Functions) Ordinance, 2016, section 5(1), Schedule 3, paragraph 4, with effect from 1st May, 2016.²

PART II

Payment of supplementary benefit and provision of welfare arrangements by the [Committee]

Payment of supplementary benefit.

5. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Part of this Law, the [Committee] shall be charged with the duty of paying a supplementary benefit by weekly or other periodic payments of the amount determined by the Administrator or by the tribunal, as the case may be, under the provisions of this Law or of any Ordinance made thereunder.

(2) Where it appears to the [Committee] that it is necessary for protecting the interests of an applicant for a supplementary benefit or his dependants that the whole or any part of the supplementary benefit should be paid to some person other than the applicant, the [Committee] may pay the supplementary benefit accordingly.

(3) Every assignment of, attachment of or charge on, and every agreement to assign or charge, a supplementary benefit shall be void and, in the event of the insolvency of a person in receipt of a supplementary benefit, the supplementary benefit shall not pass to any trustee or other person acting on behalf of his creditors.

(4) Any sums received by any person by way of a supplementary benefit shall not be included in calculating his means for the purposes of Article III of the Law entitled "Loi ayant rapport aux Débiteurs et à la Renonciation" registered on the second day of August, nineteen hundred and twenty-nine^b.

NOTES

In section 5 and the cross-heading immediately preceding it, the word "Committee" in square brackets, wherever occurring, was substituted by the Organisation of States' Affairs (Transfer of Functions) Ordinance, 2016, section 5(1), Schedule 3, paragraph 4, with effect from 1st May, 2016.³

In its application to the Island of Alderney, section 5 is modified in accordance with the provisions of the Alderney (Application of Legislation) (Supplementary Benefit) Ordinance, 1971, section 1, First Schedule, with effect from 11th June, 1971.

Special payments.

6. (1) The [Committee] may make a grant in[, or loan of,] money by way of a single payment[, or series of payments,] to meet an exceptional need to a person to whom this Law applies whose resources are insufficient to meet his requirements; such payment being such a sum as is in the opinion of the [Committee] reasonable having regard to all the circumstances of the case.

[(1A) A grant of money under subsection (1) –

- (a) may be subject to conditions as determined by [the Committee], and
- (b) in the event of failure to comply with any such conditions, may be recovered as a civil debt due to [the Committee] or by way of a deduction made from any benefit payable under or by virtue of –

^b Ordres en Conseil Vol. VIII, p. 310.

- (i) this Law, or
- (ii) any other Law under or by virtue of which a benefit or payment administered by [the Committee] is made or available.

(1B) A loan of money under subsection (1) –

- (a) shall be repaid in accordance with the terms and conditions of the loan agreed with [the Committee], and
- (b) in the event of non-payment, or breach of any such terms and conditions, may be recovered as a civil debt due to [the Committee].]

(2) The [Committee] may pay the whole or any part of the expenses incurred in connection with the burial or cremation –

- (a) of any person who was immediately before his death a person to whom this Law applied,
- (b) of the spouse or of a dependant of any person who was at the time of the death of his spouse or dependant, as the case may be, a person to whom this Law applied.

(3) The provisions of this Law, other than this section, shall apply to a payment made in accordance with the provisions of this section, as they apply to the payment of a supplementary benefit but with the substitution for references to the amount of the supplementary benefit of references to the amount of the payment.

NOTES

In section 6,

the word "Committee" in square brackets, wherever occurring, was substituted by the Organisation of States' Affairs (Transfer of Functions) Ordinance, 2016, section 5(1), Schedule 3, paragraph 4, with effect from 1st May, 2016;⁴

the words in, first the second and, second, the third pairs of square brackets in subsection (1) were inserted and, third, subsection (1A) and subsection (1B) were inserted by the Supplementary Benefit (Guernsey) (Amendment) (No. 2) Law, 2014, section 1, respectively paragraph (a)(i), paragraph (a)(ii) and paragraph (b), with effect from 30th March, 2015;

the words "the Committee" in square brackets, wherever occurring, were substituted by the Organisation of States' Affairs (Transfer of Functions) Ordinance, 2016, section 5(1), Schedule 3, paragraph 4, with effect from 1st May, 2016.

[Medical expenses payments.]

6A. (1) [The Committee] may make payments to meet the reasonable medical expenses of –

- (a) a person to whom this Law applies, and
- (b) such other category of persons as [the Committee] may by regulations prescribe.

(2) For the purposes of this section, [the Committee] may by regulations prescribe –

- (a) the categories, or types, of medical expenses for which payment may be made,

- (b) the amount (including the maximum amount) of any payment,
- (c) conditions subject to which payment may be made,
- (d) the duration of any payment or series of payments, and
- (e) such other matters as [the Committee] deems necessary in order to give effect to this section.]

NOTES

Section 6A was inserted by the Supplementary Benefit (Guernsey) (Amendment) Law, 2014, section 7, with effect from 1st December, 2014.⁵

In section 6A, the words "T/the Committee" in square brackets, wherever occurring, were substituted by the Organisation of States' Affairs (Transfer of Functions) Ordinance, 2016, section 5(1), Schedule 3, paragraph 4, with effect from 1st May, 2016.

The following Regulations have been made under section 6A:

Supplementary Benefit (Guernsey) Regulations, 2014.

[Repatriation payments.]

- 6B. (1) Where the Administrator is satisfied that a relevant person –
- (a) does not have a home in Guernsey, in which to live,
 - (b) wishes to leave Guernsey permanently in order to take up permanent residence in another country or territory where he is lawfully entitled to reside permanently, and

- (c) does not have sufficient resources available to meet the reasonable costs of travel for the purpose of making the journey to the country or territory concerned,

[the Committee] may, in relevant circumstances, make payments to meet the reasonable costs of the travel involved.

- (2) For the purpose of this section –

"a relevant person" means a person who is not a qualified resident within the meaning given by section 10(2) of the Housing (Control of Occupation) Law, 1994, and

"relevant circumstances" means circumstances in which, or where –

- (a) a court in Guernsey, or the States of Guernsey [Committee for Home Affairs], has recommended, or
- (b) the Administrator determines that it is appropriate and reasonable, that a relevant person should be repatriated at public expense.]

NOTES

Section 6B was inserted by the Supplementary Benefit (Guernsey)

(Amendment) Law, 2014, section 7, with effect from 1st December, 2014.⁶

In section 6B,

the words "the Committee" in square brackets, wherever occurring, were substituted by the Organisation of States' Affairs (Transfer of Functions) Ordinance, 2016, section 5(1), Schedule 3, paragraph 4, with effect from 1st May, 2016;

the words in square brackets in the definition of the expression "relevant circumstances" in subsection (2) were substituted by the Organisation of States' Affairs (Transfer of Functions) Ordinance, 2016, section 2, Schedule 1, paragraph 6(a), with effect from 1st May, 2016.

The functions, rights and liabilities of the Home Department and its Minister arising under or by virtue of this Law were transferred to and vested in, respectively, the Committee for Home Affairs and its President or Vice-President by the Organisation of States' Affairs (Transfer of Functions) Ordinance, 2016, section 1, Schedule 1, paragraph 6(a), with effect from 1st May, 2016, subject to the savings and transitional provisions in section 3 of the 2016 Ordinance.

Disqualification for a supplementary benefit.

7. (1) The [Committee] may direct the Administrator not to proceed with the determination of the question whether a person is in need of a supplementary benefit and the amount of any supplementary benefit to be paid to him or the [Committee] may withhold the payment of a supplementary benefit to a person if it is of opinion that that person's need of a supplementary benefit is the result of incapacity due to his own misconduct or that that person has failed without good cause to take steps to improve his physical or mental condition or has refused or neglected to apply for or to take steps to enforce any matrimonial order or affiliation order which that person is entitled to apply for or to take steps to enforce or has refused or neglected to take such other steps towards the improvement of his financial circumstances as the [Committee] may reasonably direct.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of section two of this Law, a person shall not be entitled to a supplementary benefit in respect of any period during which that person is absent from Guernsey:

Provided that the [Committee] may, if it thinks fit, pay a supplementary benefit to or in respect of any person who is temporarily absent from Guernsey for so long as, and subject to such conditions as, the [Committee] may direct.

NOTE

In section 7, the word "Committee" in square brackets, wherever occurring, was substituted by the Organisation of States' Affairs (Transfer of Functions) Ordinance, 2016, section 5(1), Schedule 3, paragraph 4, with effect from 1st May, 2016.⁷

Payment of supplementary benefit in kind.

8. (1) Where it appears to the [Committee] that by reason of special circumstances the requirements of an applicant for a supplementary benefit or of a person who is receiving a supplementary benefit can best be met by the giving of assistance in kind to the value of the whole or part of the supplementary benefit, the [Committee] may so give that assistance instead of paying a supplementary benefit.

(2) Any reference in this Part of this Law to the giving of assistance in kind under the provisions of the last preceding subsection shall include a reference to the issuing of orders for the free provision of goods or services.

(3) The provisions of this Law, other than this section, shall apply to assistance given in accordance with the provisions of the last two preceding subsections as they apply to the payment of a supplementary benefit but with the substitution for references to the amount of the supplementary benefit of references to the value of the assistance.

NOTE

In section 8, the word "Committee" in square brackets, wherever occurring, was substituted by the Organisation of States' Affairs (Transfer of Functions) Ordinance, 2016, section 5(1), Schedule 3, paragraph 4, with effect from 1st May, 2016.⁸

Prevention of duplication of payments.

9. (1) Where, in determining the amount of any supplementary benefit, the requirements of any person have been taken into account for a period for which he is entitled to payments in respect of [any benefit, allowance or pension] [under or by virtue of the Social Insurance (Guernsey) Law, 1978 (hereinafter referred to as "the Law of 1978")], [which [the Committee] may by regulation prescribe,] the payments of the said benefit, allowance or pension may, at the discretion of the [Committee], be abated by the amount by which the amounts under this Law exceed what the [Committee] determines they would have been had the payments of the said benefit, allowance or pension been made before the amount of the supplementary benefit was determined.

(2) Where the liabilities of the Guernsey Insurance Fund [maintained by the [Committee] under the Law of 1978], are reduced by virtue of the last foregoing subsection, there shall be paid out of that Fund into the General Revenue of the States of Guernsey an amount equal to the reduction.

NOTES

In section 9,

the words in, first, the first and, second, the third pairs of square brackets in subsection (1) were, respectively, substituted and inserted by the Supplementary Benefit (Guernsey) (Amendment) Law, 2014, section 8(a) and section 8(b), with effect from 1st December, 2014;⁹

the words "the Committee" in square brackets within the third pair of square brackets in subsection (1) were substituted by the Organisation of the words in the second pair of square brackets in subsection (1), and in square brackets in subsection (2), were substituted by the Social Insurance (Guernsey) Law, 1978, section 120, Fifth Schedule, with effect from 1st January, 1979;

States' Affairs (Transfer of Functions) Ordinance, 2016, section 5(1), Schedule 3, paragraph 4, with effect from 1st May, 2016;

the word "Committee" in square brackets, wherever occurring, was substituted by the Organisation of States' Affairs (Transfer of Functions) Ordinance, 2016, section 5(1), Schedule 3, paragraph 4, with effect from 1st May, 2016.¹⁰

The following Regulations have been made under section 9:

Supplementary Benefit (Guernsey) Regulations, 2014.

Welfare arrangements for [disabled persons].

10. (1) The [Committee] shall have power to make such arrangements as it may deem necessary or expedient for promoting the welfare of [disabled persons], and for that purpose it shall not be necessary that any such person shall be in receipt of a supplementary benefit.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of the last foregoing subsection arrangements may, in particular, be made thereunder –

- (a) for enabling [disabled persons] to receive instruction in their homes or elsewhere in methods of overcoming their disabilities,
- (b) for finding suitable work for [disabled persons],
- [(c) for providing disabled persons with equipment, aids and appliances as required.]

(d) ...

(3) The [Committee] may pay an inducement allowance of such amount and subject to such conditions as the [Committee] may determine to a [disabled person] or to his employer for the purpose of encouraging that person to train for, obtain and remain in, suitable employment.

(4) The [Committee] may recover from persons availing themselves of any service provided under this section such charge (if any) as, having regard to the cost of the service, the [Committee] may determine, whether generally or in the circumstances of any particular case.

(5) ...

NOTES

In section 10,

the word "Committee" in square brackets, wherever occurring, was substituted by the Organisation of States' Affairs (Transfer of Functions) Ordinance, 2016, section 5(1), Schedule 3, paragraph 4, with effect from 1st May, 2016;¹¹

the words "disabled person" and "disabled persons" in square brackets, wherever occurring, were substituted by the Supplementary Benefit (Guernsey) (Amendment) Law, 2014, section 10(a), with effect from 1st December, 2014;¹² first, paragraph (c) of subsection (2) was substituted and paragraph (d) thereof repealed and, second, subsection (5) was repealed by the Supplementary Benefit (Guernsey) (Amendment) Law, 2014, section 10, respectively paragraph (b) and paragraph (c), with effect from 1st December, 2014.

Voluntary organisations for welfare of [disabled persons].

11. The [Committee] may employ any voluntary organisation as its agent for the purpose of helping and caring for [disabled persons].

NOTES

In section 11,

the word "Committee", wherever occurring, was substituted by the Organisation of States' Affairs (Transfer of Functions) Ordinance, 2016, section 5(1), Schedule 3, paragraph 4, with effect from 1st May, 2016;¹³

the words "disabled persons" in square brackets, wherever occurring, were substituted by the Supplementary Benefit (Guernsey) (Amendment) Law, 2014, section 10(a), with effect from 1st December, 2014.¹⁴

Duty of Authority to provide temporary protection for property of persons.

12. ...

NOTE

Section 12 was repealed by the Supplementary Benefit (Guernsey) (Amendment) Law, 2014, section 11, with effect from 1st December, 2014.¹⁵

PART III

Appeals

[Committee] decisions to be final.

13. There shall be no appeal from any direction, determination, or decision of the [Committee] made under any of the provisions of this Law or of any Ordinance made thereunder.

NOTE

In section 13, and the marginal note thereto, the words in square brackets were substituted by the Organisation of States' Affairs (Transfer of Functions) Ordinance, 2016, section 5(1), Schedule 3, paragraph 4, with effect from 1st May, 2016.¹⁶

Appeals against decisions of the Administrator.

14. (1) Subject to the provisions of any Ordinance made under this Law, where a person applying for, or in receipt of, a supplementary benefit is aggrieved by a decision of the Administrator with respect to any of the following matters, that is to say –

- (a) a decision of the Administrator that that person is not a person to whom this Law applies,
- (b) a decision of the Administrator that that person is not in need of a supplementary benefit,
- (c) a decision of the Administrator as to the amount of any supplementary benefit to be paid to him, he may appeal, within the time prescribed, to a tribunal (hereinafter referred to as "the tribunal") which shall be appointed by the Royal Court either generally or in respect of a particular appeal and shall be constituted as the Royal Court may decide.

(2) The tribunal may refer to the Royal Court for decision any question of law arising in connection with the determination of an appeal by the tribunal under this section in such manner and within such period as shall be directed by Order of the Royal Court.

(3) Any person aggrieved by a decision of the tribunal on any question of law may appeal from that decision to the Royal Court in such manner and within such period as shall be directed by Order of the Royal Court.

(4) The decision of the Administrator or the tribunal, as the case may be, on any question in respect of which there has been no appeal under this section within the time so prescribed or directed by Order of the Royal Court, as the case may be, shall be final and conclusive.

NOTES

In its application to the Island of Alderney, section 14 is modified in accordance with the provisions of the Alderney (Application of Legislation) (Supplementary Benefit) Ordinance, 1971, section 1, First Schedule, with effect from 11th June, 1971.

The following Order has been made by the Royal Court under section 14:

Supplementary Benefit (Appeals and References) (Guernsey) Order, 1971.

PART IV

General and Supplemental Provisions

Power of the States to make Ordinances.

15. (1) The States may, from time to time, by Ordinance make such provision as they may deem necessary or expedient for the purposes of carrying Parts I, II and III of this Law into effect and any such Ordinance may, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, in particular, provide –

- (a) for the manner in which an application for a supplementary benefit is to be made,

- (b) for the evidence to be adduced of matters relevant to the paying of a supplementary benefit and for the manner of the adduction of such evidence,
- (c) for the procedure to be followed on the consideration and determination of applications and matters to be considered and determined by the Administrator or by the tribunal,
- (d) for the manner in which any question may be raised as to the continuance of the receipt by a person of a supplementary benefit and as to the disqualification of a person to continue to receive a supplementary benefit,
- (e) for enabling the Administrator to appoint a person to exercise on behalf of any person applying for a supplementary benefit or on behalf of any person receiving a supplementary benefit who is by reason of any mental or other incapacity unable to act, any right to which that applicant or person receiving a supplementary benefit may be entitled under this Law, and to authorise any person so appointed to receive on behalf and for the benefit of that applicant or person receiving a supplementary benefit, any supplementary benefit,
- (f) for the time to be allowed for making an appeal to the tribunal,

- (g) for the manner in which a supplementary benefit is to be paid,
- (h) for such incidental and supplementary matters for which the States deem it necessary or expedient for any such Ordinance to provide[,
- (i) for the duties and obligations to be imposed upon and observed by individuals who are authorised to receive, on behalf of another person, supplementary benefit or who are otherwise appointed to act in relation thereto under section 5(2) or under an Ordinance made under paragraph (e),
- (j) for the penalties to be incurred on summary conviction by individuals described in paragraph (i) who misuse, misappropriate or fail to account for supplementary benefit or who otherwise fail to comply with the duties and obligations imposed upon them by Ordinance made under paragraph (i),
- (k) for the repayment of any supplementary benefit which has been misused or misappropriated, or which has not been accounted for, by an individual described in paragraph (i) and for its recovery, together with interest thereon, as a debt due to the [Committee]].

(2) Any power conferred by this Law to make any Ordinance shall be construed as including a power exercisable in the like manner to vary or repeal the Ordinance.

NOTES

In section 15,

paragraph (i), paragraph (j) and paragraph (k) of subsection (1) were inserted by the Social Insurance (Guernsey) (Amendment) Law, 1999, section 26, with effect from 17th August, 1999;

the word in square brackets within paragraph (k) was substituted by the Organisation of States' Affairs (Transfer of Functions) Ordinance, 2016, section 5(1), Schedule 3, paragraph 4, with effect from 1st May, 2016.¹⁷

In its application to the Island of Alderney, section 15 is modified in accordance with the provisions of the Alderney (Application of Legislation) (Supplementary Benefit) Ordinance, 1971, section 1, First Schedule, with effect from 11th June, 1971.

The following Ordinances have been made under section 15:

In accordance with the provisions of the Supplementary Benefit (Guernsey) (Amendment) Law, 2014, section 18, with effect from 1st December, 2014 and for the avoidance of doubt, the Supplementary Benefit (Implementation) Ordinance, 1971 shall continue in force as if made under sections 3, 15 and 15B of this Law as this Law has effect immediately after the commencement of the 2014 Law.

[Power to amend Part IV by Ordinance.]

15A. The States may by Ordinance amend –

- (a) Part IV of this Law, and
 - (b) any other Part of this Law where, in the case of that other Part, the amendment is –
 - (i) necessary to give full effect to, or
 - (ii) consequential upon,
- any amendment made under paragraph (a).]

NOTE

Section 15A was inserted by the Supplementary Benefit (Guernsey) (Amendment) Law, 2014, section 12, with effect from 1st December, 2014.

[General provisions as to Ordinances and regulations.]

15B. (1) An Ordinance or regulations under this Law –

- (a) may be amended or repealed by a subsequent Ordinance or subsequent regulations, as the case may be, hereunder,
- (b) may contain such consequential, incidental, supplemental and transitional provision as may appear to be necessary or expedient, and
- (c) shall, in the case of regulations, be laid before a meeting of the States as soon as possible after being made; and if at that or the next meeting the States resolve that the regulations be annulled, the regulations shall cease to have effect but without prejudice to anything done under them or to the making of new regulations.

(2) Any power conferred by this Law to make an Ordinance or regulations may be exercised –

- (a) in relation to all cases to which the power extends, or in relation to all those cases subject to specified exceptions, or in relation to any specified cases or classes of cases,

(b) so as to make, as respects the cases in relation to which it is exercised –

(i) the full provision to which the power extends, or any lesser provision (whether by way of exception or otherwise),

(ii) the same provision for all cases, or different provision for different cases or classes of cases, or different provision for the same case or class of case for different purposes,

(iii) any such provision either unconditionally or subject to any prescribed conditions.]

NOTE

Section 15B was inserted by the Supplementary Benefit (Guernsey) (Amendment) Law, 2014, section 12, with effect from 1st December, 2014.

Limitation on payment of supplementary benefit.

16. A sum shall not be paid on account of a supplementary benefit if payment of the sum is not obtained within three months after the date on which it became payable.

Liability to maintain wife or husband and children.

17. (1) For the purposes of this Law –

(a) a man shall be liable to maintain his wife and his children, and

(b) a woman shall be liable to maintain her husband and her children.

(2) The reference in paragraph (a) of the last foregoing subsection to a man's children shall include a reference to any child of whom he has been adjudged to be the putative father, and the reference in paragraph (b) of that subsection to a woman's children shall include a reference to any illegitimate children of that woman.

Recovery of cost of a supplementary benefit from persons liable for maintenance.

18. (1) Where a supplementary benefit is paid or applied for by reference to the requirements of any person (in this section referred to as "a beneficiary"), the [Committee] may apply to the Court for an order under the next succeeding subsection against any other person who is liable to maintain wholly or partly the beneficiary; an order as aforesaid shall not be made by the Court unless the person against whom the order is sought has been served with notice of the [Committee]'s intention to apply for such an order and has had an opportunity of being heard thereon.

(2) On an application under the last foregoing subsection the Court shall have regard to all the circumstances and in particular to the resources of the defendant, and may order the defendant to pay such sum, weekly or otherwise, as the Court may consider appropriate.

(3) For the purposes of the application of the last foregoing subsection to payments in respect of a supplementary benefit paid before the application under the provisions of subsection (1) of this section was made, a person shall not be treated as having at the time when that application is heard any greater resources than he had at the time when the supplementary benefit was paid.

- (4) Payments under subsection (2) of this section shall be made –
- (a) to the [Committee] in respect of the cost of a supplementary benefit, whether paid before or after the making of the order, or
 - (b) to a beneficiary, or
 - (c) to such other person as appears to the Court expedient in the interest of the beneficiary, or as to part in one such manner and as to part in another, as may be provided by the order.

NOTE

In section 18, the words in square brackets were substituted by the Organisation of States' Affairs (Transfer of Functions) Ordinance, 2016, section 5(1), Schedule 3, paragraph 4, with effect from 1st May, 2016.¹⁸

Affiliation orders.

19. (1) The following provisions of this section shall have effect where a supplementary benefit is paid under the provisions of this Law by reference to the requirements of an illegitimate child and the provisions of the last foregoing section shall not apply in relation to the father of the child.

(2) If no affiliation order is in force the [Committee] may within three years from the date of the commencement of the payment of the supplementary benefit make application to the Court for a summons to be served under Article 1 of the Law entitled "Loi relative à l'Entretien des Enfants Illégitimes, 1927" (hereinafter referred to as "the Illegitimacy Law")^d.

(3) In any application under the provisions of the last foregoing subsection the Court shall hear such evidence as the [Committee] may produce in addition to the evidence required by the Court under Article 2 of the Illegitimacy Law and shall in all other respects, but subject to the provisions of the next succeeding subsection, proceed as on an application made by the mother under the said Article 1.

(4) An order made under Article 2 of the Illegitimacy Law may, on an application under subsection (2) of this section, be made so as to provide that the payments or a part of the payments to be made thereunder shall, in lieu of being made to the mother or a person appointed to have the custody of the child [or a person having a relevant order], be made to the [Committee] or to such other person as the Court may direct.

(5) On an application by the [Committee] in any proceedings under the said Article 1 brought by the mother of the child an order under the said Article 2 may be made so as to provide as aforesaid.

(6) An order made under the said Article 2, whether made before or after the commencement of this Law may, on the application of the [Committee], be varied so as to provide as aforesaid; and any order under the said Article 2 which provides as aforesaid may on the application of the mother of the child be varied so as to provide that the payments thereunder shall be made to the mother or a person appointed to have the custody of the child [or a person having a relevant order].

[(7) For the purposes of subsections (4) and (6), "relevant order" means an order made under section 17 of the Children (Guernsey and Alderney) Law, 2008.]

NOTES

In section 19,

the word "Committee" in square brackets, wherever occurring, was substituted by the Organisation of States' Affairs (Transfer of Functions) Ordinance, 2016, section 5(1), Schedule 3, paragraph 4, with effect from 1st May, 2016;¹⁹ subsection (7), the words in the first pair of square brackets in subsection (4) and the words in the second pair of square brackets in subsection (6) were inserted by the Children (Consequential Amendments etc.) (Guernsey and Alderney) Ordinance, 2009, section 3, Schedule 1, Part I, respectively paragraph 19(b) and paragraph 19(a), with effect from 4th January, 2010, subject to the savings and transitional provisions in section 4 of, and Schedule 2 to, the 2009 Ordinance.

In its application to the Island of Alderney, section 19 is modified in accordance with the provisions of the Alderney (Application of Legislation) (Supplementary Benefit) Ordinance, 1971, section 1, First Schedule, with effect from 11th June, 1971.

NOTE

Section 21 was repealed by the Supplementary Benefit (Guernsey) (Amendment) Law, 2014, section 11, with effect from 1st December, 2014.²¹

Recovery in cases of misrepresentation or non-disclosure.

22. [(1)] If, whether fraudulently or otherwise, any person misrepresents or fails to disclose any material fact, and in consequence of the misrepresentation or failure –

- (a) the [Committee] incurs any expenditure under any of the provisions of this Law, or
- (b) any sum recoverable under this Law by the [Committee] is not recovered, the [Committee] shall be entitled to recover the amount thereof from the said person as a civil debt [or by way of a deduction in accordance with subsection (2)].

[(2)] A deduction under subsection (1) may be made from any benefit payable under or by virtue of –

- (a) this Law, or

- (b) any other Law under or by virtue of which a benefit or payment administered by [the Committee] is made or available.]

NOTES

In section 22, subsection (1) was renumbered and subsection (2) was inserted by the Supplementary Benefit (Guernsey) (Amendment) Law, 2014, section 13, respectively paragraph (a) and paragraph (c), with effect from 1st December, 2014;

Failure to maintain.

23. (1) Where a person persistently refuses or neglects to maintain any person whom he is liable to maintain and in consequence of his refusal or neglect a supplementary benefit under the provisions of this Law is paid to any other person, he shall be guilty of an offence.

(2) A person guilty of an offence under this section shall be liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding [level 2 on the uniform scale] or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

NOTE

In section 23, the words in square brackets in subsection (2) were substituted by the Uniform Scale of Fines (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1989, section 2(5), Schedule, Part I, with effect from 1st July, 1989.

False statements.

24. Any person –

- (a) who, for the purposes of obtaining any supplementary benefit or any other benefit whatsoever under Part II of this Law whether in kind or otherwise, either for himself or for some other person, or for the purposes of avoiding or reducing any liability under this Law, or for any other purpose whatsoever connected with this Law or any Ordinance made thereunder, knowingly makes any false statement or false representation or recklessly makes any statement or representation which is false in a material particular, or
- (b) who fails to disclose, produce, deliver or furnish anything which he is required to disclose, produce, deliver or furnish under the provisions of this Law or of any Ordinance made thereunder, or
- (c) who fails to comply with any direction or demand given or made under the provisions of this Law or of any Ordinance made thereunder, shall be guilty of an offence and liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding [level 3 on the uniform scale] or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

SECOND SCHEDULE
SAVINGS AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

Section thirty

1. (1) Notwithstanding the repeal of the Pensions Laws by virtue of the provisions of the Law of 1955 nothing in this Law contained shall, subject to the provisions of the next succeeding sub-paragraph, be taken to affect the operation of the Pensions Laws in relation to any person who at the date of the repeal of those Laws was in receipt of any pension thereunder.

(2) Any person who, but for the repeal of the Pensions Laws, would have had a right of appeal from a decision of the Administrator or of the Pensions Tribunal under the provisions of section eight of the Old Age and Blindness Pensions (Guernsey) Law, 1950, or of any regulations made thereunder shall continue to have such a right save that any appeal from a decision of the Administrator shall be determined by the tribunal appointed under section fourteen of this Law, which tribunal for this purpose shall have all the powers and may perform all the duties of the Pensions Tribunal under the provisions of the Pensions Laws.

2. Any application for assistance under the Law of 1955 which is pending at the commencement of this Law shall be dealt with as if it had been an application for supplementary benefit made under this Law; and any person aggrieved by a decision of the Administrator under this paragraph shall have the like right of appeal as he would have had under section thirteen of the Law of 1955 and paragraph 3 of this Schedule.

3. Any appeal which, but for the operation of this Law, could have been brought against a decision of the Administrator to a tribunal constituted under section thirteen of the Law of 1955 may be brought to a tribunal constituted under section fourteen of this Law.

4. The tribunal constituted immediately before the commencement of this Law under section thirteen of the Law of 1955 shall be deemed to have been constituted under section fourteen of this Law, but without prejudice to any proceedings pending at the commencement of this Law; and the provisions of any Ordinance or Order of the Royal Court made under the provisions of the Law of 1955 and in force immediately before the commencement of this Law shall have effect as if made under the provisions of this Law until repealed by an Ordinance or Order of the Royal Court, as the case may be, made under the provisions of this Law.

5. In so far as any direction or decision given or any document made or issued or anything done under any of the provisions of the Law of 1955 could have been given or made or issued or done under a corresponding provision of this Law, it shall not be invalidated by the repeal of the Law of 1955 but shall have effect as if given or made or issued or done under that corresponding provision.

6. Where any Law or any document refers, either expressly or by implication, to any of the provisions of the Law of 1955 the reference shall, except where the context otherwise requires, be construed as, or as including, a reference to the corresponding provision of this Law.

7. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Law, any person who, immediately before the day on which this Law comes into force, was in receipt of a pension payable under the Law of 1955 shall, on that day, have that pension converted into a supplementary benefit at the same rate.

(2) Any application for a pension under the Law of 1955, including any subsequent declaration of means or other information made by a person to whom the foregoing sub-paragraph applies, shall be treated as if it were an application for a supplementary benefit under this Law.
