Note: You will each be required to complete a tax return for the year of your marriage/civil partnership. For following years a joint return will need to be made by the husband, or older partner in a same-sex marriage/civil partnership, and the return must include income for both spouses, unless an election for separate assessment has been made. Either spouse can request to be assessed separately but this request must be received in writing, by 31st March in the year you wish it to commence. If you are assessed separately, you will each be required to complete your own income tax return and your tax affairs will be kept separate.
