English Language Requirement

From 01 June 2011, a person who applies to enter or remain in the Bailiwick of Guernsey as a spouse, fiancé(e) or unmarried partner of a British citizen or person settled in the Bailiwick of Guernsey is, unless they are exempted from the requirement, required to show that they can speak and understand English.

If you are not a national of a majority English speaking country you will need to pass an acceptable English language test with a test provider approved by the Lieutenant Governor for this purpose or to produce specified evidence that you have an academic qualification which is deemed to meet the recognised standard of a Bachelor's degree in the UK. Master's degrees and PhDs are also acceptable.

Please see section 3 and appendices of this form for further information.

Transitional Arrangements

Any person who applied to enter the Bailiwick of Guernsey prior to 01 June 2011, in any capacity, will not need to meet the English language requirement for this application.

SECTION 8 – Documentary evidence

The documents needed in support of your application, as well as those of any dependants included in your application, are listed below. You only have to provide those which are relevant to your case.

DOCUMENTS REQUIRED FOR ALL APPLICATIONS:

- Your current passport. If you first entered the UK and Islands on a previous passport, please also provide that document.
- Current, and/or, previous passports (where relevant) of each dependant applying for an extension of stay in the Bailiwick of Guernsey with you.
- A full birth certificate (i.e. one which shows the parents names) for each dependant child of your present marriage, or relationship who is applying for an extension of stay with you in the Bailiwick of Guernsey.
- Documents showing that your partner is present and settled in the Bailiwick of Guernsey.

NOTE: The documents must be either: Your partner's current passport or travel document, or if your partner is a British Citizen without a passport, his or her full birth certificate together with at least one other formal document as evidence of ordinary residence in the Bailiwick of Guernsey for the last three years.

List any documents in this box (continue on another sheet if necessary)

- Evidence that you have the funds to maintain and accommodate yourself and any dependants without recourse to public funds. The evidence must be formal documents such as bank statements (for the last three months), a building society passbook, and wage slips for you and/or your partner. If a relative or friend is supporting you, the evidence should be a letter from him/her confirming this, together with formal documents showing their financial situation.

- Evidence that you and your partner have suitable accommodation, which you own or occupy exclusively. This should take the form of a tenancy agreement or deeds to a property.

English Language Requirement (for those persons who applied to enter the Bailiwick of Guernsey on or after 01 June 2011)

If you are aged 64 or under, you must provide one of the following;

- An original certificate showing that you have passed an acceptable English language test provided by a test provider approved by the Lieutenant Governor for this purpose; or
- An original certificate showing that you have been awarded an appropriate acceptable qualification, showing your name, the title of the award, the date of the award and the name of the awarding institution; or
- An academic transcript and an academic reference from the institution that awarded your Academic qualification; or
- A passport or travel document showing that you are a national of a majority English-speaking country.

Note: If you are unable to provide your passport or travel document, you may only submit other evidence of your nationality in certain circumstances.

These circumstances are;

- Where your passport has been stolen
- Where your passport has expired and been returned to the relevant authorities

In these circumstances, we can accept the following pieces of evidence as proof of nationality;

- Your current national identity document
- An original letter from your Home Government or Embassy confirming your full name, date of birth and nationality

If you are unable to provide your national passport, please explain the reason in the box below. Continue on a separate sheet of paper if necessary;

- A doctor's letter or similar document if you are claiming exemption from taking the English language test because of a mental or physical condition;
- Any satisfactory evidence you wish to submit in support of your request to be exempted from English language requirement on the basis of exceptional compassionate circumstances.

If you are applying as a spouse:

- A marriage certificate

If you applying as an unmarried partner:

- You must provide documents showing that you have been in a relationship akin to marriage for at least two years (see note below)

Note: Ideally, this evidence should indicate joint commitments in your finances, other responsibilities and social activities spread across the past 2 years.

Items of correspondence or other documentary evidence from sources of the kind listed below would be acceptable. These should be divided fairly equally between each of the two years and be addressed jointly in both your names wherever possible. If you do not have any or enough in your joint names, items addressed to each of you individually may be acceptable, provided they show the same address and you provide roughly the same number of items in each of your names.

Please provide as many items of evidence of correspondence / evidence as possible for the preceding 2 years.

Please give an explanation if you are unable to provide any items and/or if the evidence is not in your joint names and/or it is not spread over the 2 year period as indicated. An explanation must also be provided for any periods where you did not live together, as well as evidence in support of the explanation and evidence to show how you maintained contact with each other during this time.

Below are examples of acceptable documentation:

- Telephone bills or statements
- Gas bills or statements
- Electricity bills or statements
- Water rate bills or statements
- Cadastre bills or statements
- Mortgage statements or agreement
- Banks or building society statements/passbooks
- Tenancy agreements
- Insurance policies/certificates or other correspondence
- Loan agreements
- Membership of sports or social clubs
- Income Tax
- Correspondence from GP / Dentist

Your application could be delayed or even refused if you do not provide enough evidence of this kind.

If you are applying on the basis of UK ancestry

- Evidence that you are in employment or intend to seek employment in the Bailiwick of Guernsey – this could be a letter from your employer confirming your employment, evidence that you have applied for jobs or that you are registered with a recruitment agency.

If applying in another category not specifically covered by this form please contact the Immigration & Nationality Division for further information regarding supporting documents.

SECTION 9 – Declaration(s) – COMPLETE ONE SECTION ONLY

Appendix 1 – Majority English speaking countries - Nationality

If you are a national of a majority English speaking country, you will not be required to take the test.

The Immigration & Nationality Division of the Guernsey Border Agency considers the following countries to be majority English speaking countries;

Antigua and Barbuda; Australia; The Bahamas; Barbados; Belize; Canada; Dominica; Grenada; Guyana; Jamaica; New Zealand; St Kitts and Nevis; St Lucia; St Vincent and the Grenadines; Trinidad and Tobago; United States of America

Appendix 2 – Majority English speaking countries – Academic Qualifications

If you hold an academic qualification equivalent to a Bachelor's degree in the UK which was taught in English, you will not be required to take the English Language test.

Where the academic qualification was taught in one of the majority English speaking countries listed below we will assume it to have been taught in English:

Antigua and Barbuda; Australia; The Bahamas; Barbados; Belize; Dominica; Grenada; Guyana; Jamaica; New Zealand; St Kitts and Nevis; St Lucia; St Vincent and the Grenadines; Trinidad and Tobago; the UK; United States of America.

Appendix 3 – Academic qualifications taught in English

Academic qualifications taught in countries other than the UK and the designated English speaking countries listed above may also be accepted if you are able to provide evidence to show that the qualification was taught in English and that it is recognised by the National Academic Recognition Information Centre for the UK (UK NARIC) as equivalent to a UK Bachelor's degree.

Qualifications awarded outside of the UK must be recognised by the UK NARIC as equivalent to a UK Bachelor's degree. You must provide a letter from UK NARIC stating that your qualification meets this standard.

Master's degrees and PhD's will only be acceptable if recognised by UK NARIC. Evidence of this will be required. If UK NARIC cannot confirm the equivalence of your qualification you will not be able to use it to meet the English language requirement.

Where can I find out about the English language test?

Further information can be obtained from the Guernsey College of Further Education
– telephone number: 737500

What if you can't pass an English language test before applying for leave to enter/remain in the UK?

If you cannot obtain the relevant qualification before submitting your application for leave to enter or remain in the UK, and you are not exempt from taking the test, you will not qualify for leave to enter or remain as a spouse/unmarried partner.

If you apply for leave to enter or remain your application will be refused without any refund of the statutory application fee.
