Dear Sir,

On the 7th inst. the States elected me as President of the Committee for Education, Sport & Culture. I am also a member of the Committee for Employment & Social Security. Owing to these commitments, I wish to resign as President of the States' Assembly & Constitution Committee. I should be grateful if you would kindly prepare the necessary proposition to allow the States to elect my successor. I respectfully request that you consider issuing the proposition for the States' meeting on the 28th inst. please.

I have served on the States' Assembly & Constitution Committee, or its successor, since I was first elected to the States nearly ten years ago, and I have served as its President for nearly six years. I would like to thank you most sincerely for the considerable assistance and advice you have provided to the Committee and to me as its President.

I shall miss the work of the Committee and wish my successor and his or her Committee all the very best.

Yours faithfully,

SIGNED

Matt Fallaize
