To	President, Committee for Economic Development
Subject	The PricewaterhouseCoopers report on the tourism sector and social media updates on transport delays
Date of questions	19 th June, 2018
States' Meeting	27 th June, 2018

I would like to ask the President of Economic Development Deputy Parkinson, some questions relating to tourism product issues.

These are as follows:

Question 1

The President on a recent BBC Radio broadcast made several references to an unpublished commissioned report by the previous committee leadership requesting PWC Price Waterhouse Cooper to analyze the tourism sector. When will the report be published in full?

Question 2

- a) Why has the PWC report not already been distributed to the media, public, stakeholders and politicians?
- b) Does it contain some uncomfortable issues we need to confront as a society, decision making body and economy?

Question 3

Does the Economic Development committee believe as part of the digital economy and connectivity strategy that state owned businesses especially for example a state owned passenger transport company would and should have a daily and instantly updated social media Twitter and Facebook style links informing tourists and other key visitors updates on transport delays, to avoid disappointment and reputational damage?
