Request for information:

On Wednesday 27th February the Committee for Economic Development released a summary of the PwC Tourism and Customer Experience Strategic Review. This was published on the Government website at the following link. <https://gov.gg/publications>

The report in its entirety was available to the Committee on or around November 2017. In the report you will notice on page 5 it makes mention of the 28 stakeholders that were interviewed; I was one of the stakeholders.

I am formally requesting that the report is released in its entirety for public and industry consumption.
