

Planning ahead to ensure your pet has the correct health protection documented and in place if you live with your pet in Guernsey

FUTURE PET TRAVEL REQUIREMENTS: TRAVEL TO THE EU

No Deal

Unlisted

- Microchip
- Rabies vaccination
- Blood sample for rabies antibody 30 days or more after vaccination
- Send blood to an approved laboratory
- If the rabies antibody result is acceptable you can travel to the EU three months after the sample date
- Within 10 days to travel to the EU an authorised vet must complete an Animal Health Certificate

Deal

Implementation Period

Continue to use your current pet passport

Apply for Listed status

Part 1. Listed

- The UK would be permitted to issue its own pet passport which would include the Channel Islands
- Pet owners would have to get new UK pet passports but they could be used in a similar way to pet owners existing EU (UK) pet passports

Part 2. Listed

- The UK would be permitted to issue its own pet passport which would include the Channel Islands
- Pet owners would have to get new UK pet passports
- Blood sample for rabies antibody 30 days or more after vaccination
- Send blood to an approved laboratory
- If the rabies antibody result is acceptable you can travel to the EU