16:16	Presiding Officer	The next item of business will be the Committee for Home Affairs, the 'Justice Review Report'. There has been a Sursis Motive lodged, proposed by Deputy McSwiggan and seconded by Deputy Merrett. The President of Home Affairs would need to open debate before the Sursis Motive can be considered.

16:16	Deputy Lowe	The Committee for Home Affairs unanimously requests that consideration of the 'Justice Review Report' is deferred until the August States' Meeting.
16:17	Presiding Officer	Proposing a Motion to the States that it defers debate on this item of business so it becomes the first item of business to be considered at the August Meeting.
16:17	Deputy Roffey	Expresses concern regarding the report being moved to the August Meeting which has a heavy agenda. Asks whether it would be preferable to schedule in another day to consider the Report.
16:17	Presiding Officer	Invites Deputy St Pier as the President of the Policy & Resources Committee to offer his view on the matter.
16:18	Deputy St Pier	Gives his personal view - can understand the arguments to hold another meeting before July to deal with this matter.

16:19	Deputy Leadbeater	Suggests the item is deferred until Wednesday 22nd July
16:19	Presiding Officer	Proposes a Motion to the States that it defers debate on this item of business so it becomes the first item of business to be considered at the August Meeting. Au voix (difficult to ascertain the result).
16:19	Deputy Lowe	Proposes that a Meeting is held on one day in the week commencing 20th July to discuss the Justice Review Report. Highlights that the Committee for Home Affairs has not had the opportunity to discuss the Sursis Motive and therefore, if the States was minded to commence debate, they would have to request a recess to consider it.
16:20	Presiding Officer	Given the difficulty in ascertaining the result of the motion to defer debate until the August Meeting, was going to suggest a recorded vote.
16:21	States Greffier	Recorded vote on the motion to defer the 'Justice Review Report' to the August Meeting

16:25	Deputy Fallaize	Proposes the Schedule for future States' Business left unchanged and propose that the States identify a day next week to meet to discuss this Report.
16:26	Deputy McSwiggan	Proposes the States sit under 6:30 p.m., or for as long as it takes to consider the Sursis Motive only. If the Sursis Motive is successful, there would be no need to convene an additional meeting. If it is unsuccessful, the States could then consider a day next week to meet to discuss the Report.
16:26	Presiding Officer	Proposes a Motion to the States that it adjourns to a day next week but then the question arises as to what day. Deputy Lowe has suggested Wednesday.
16:27	Deputy Green	Advises that there is a Scrutiny Public Hearing with the Policy & Resources Committee on Wednesday 22nd July.
16:27	Presiding Officer	Requests Members who would be in difficulty any day next week to stand to indicate this. Advises the States' Chamber is unavailable on Monday. Asks for indications from Members regarding Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Advises that Wednesday looks more feasible from Member indications.

16:29	Presiding Officer	We'll assume that the crowd was singing to Deputy Trott...
