15:24	Deputy Dudley-Owen	A meeting had taken place during the lunch recess between the Presiding Officer, Deputy Dudley-Owen, Deputy Soulsby and Deputy Meerveld. Deputy Dudley-Owen had subsequently liaised with Deputies Le Tocq and Leadbeater (the sponsors of the remaining amendments to be laid) regarding the afternoon's proceedings and the probability of completing the debate on the item if the States were to sit until 7:00 p.m. On balance, and considering Members' availability in the following week, the most pragmatic and practical solution was to defer the Education debate until the first Meeting of the States of Deliberation in September.
