Access to Public Information request regarding media reporting of COVID regulations

Request:

In 2019 through to today's date have our government paid any money to media companies to stop them reporting negative articles on covid regulations or vaccines

If monies were paid to media companies which companies were paid, how much were they paid and what were the restrictions on reporting

Response provided by the Civil Contingencies Authority:

No money has been spent preventing any media reporting of COVID regulations, vaccines or any aspect of the government's COVID response. No such offer has been made to any media.
