

E2 UNIFORM CLEANING ALLOWANCES (section 8)

APPLIES UNTIL 31 DECEMBER 2021

Airline cabin crew (2012 onwards)

A deduction of £100 is allowed to all uniformed cabin crew who are required, in accordance with their conditions of employment, to clean, at their own expense, the uniforms with which they are provided. (This does not relate to pilots, who are referred to in E1 above.)

Post Office Employees

A deduction of £50 is allowed to all uniformed Postmen and Postmen Higher Grade, who are required, in accordance with their conditions of employment, to clean at their own expense the uniforms with which they are provided.

Police Officers and Traffic Wardens

A deduction of £100 is allowed to all uniformed officers who are required, in accordance with their conditions of employment, to clean at their own expense the uniforms with which they are provided.

Prison Officers

A deduction of £100 is allowed to all uniformed officers who are required, in accordance with their conditions of employment, to clean at their own expense the uniforms with which they are provided.

St John Ambulance Personnel

A deduction of £100 is allowed to all ambulance personnel who are required, in accordance with their conditions of employment, to clean at their own expense the uniforms with which they are provided.

Published: 1987

Revised: 1988 / 1989 / 1994 / 1995 / 1998 / 2005 / 2011 / 2012