

Date of Vote: 29th January, 2015

Billet d'État: II of 2015
Department: Public Services Department
Subject: Belle Greve Phase IV – Proposed outfalls replacement
Proposition: Amendment Article I
Deputy J A B Gollop
Deputy D de G De Lisle

“1. To delete all of the proposition after “opinion” and substitute:

“to direct the Public Services Department, in view of the cost difference of over 450% between the preliminary cost estimate of £4m included in the Treasury and Resources Department’s Capital Prioritisation report submitted in 2009 (for outfall refurbishment and upgrading), and the funding sought in that Report of £19.9m (for replacement of both the long sea outfall and the short sea outfall), to re-examine the relative feasibility, desirability, cost and other implications of:

a) pursuing the outfalls replacement currently envisaged as Belle Greve Phase IV; or

b) adopting an alternative policy involving sewage treatment (namely primary secondary and sludge treatment);

and to report to the States thereon by no later than their meeting in May 2015, in sufficient detail to enable the States to reach an informed decision about whether to adopt such an alternative policy or pursue such outfalls replacement.”

2. To rescind their Resolution of 1st August 2014 on Proposition 2 of Article XIII of Billet d'État XVI of 2014.”
