This includes allowances and deductions, such as your Personal Allowance or Mortgage interest paid.

Your Coding Notice for the calendar year 2023

Your coding notice confirms your tax-free allowance. It can be:

- Increased if you qualify for certain allowances or tax reliefs
- Decreased to collect tax due on income not taxed at source

If you need to make changes, please contact the Revenue Service by email to checkmycoding@gov.gg or phone on 01481 225700.

This includes the income you receive, where tax is not taken out at source, for example rental or investment income.

Allowances and Deductions
Total Allowances and Deductions	£0
Less total income of	£0
Annual tax-free coding balance	£13,025

Other Income
Total Income	£0

This is the amount that is used to calculate the weekly and monthly figures below.

Employer/pension provider	Payroll no	Weekly amount	Monthly amount
Employer Name 87		£250	£1,085

This shows your current employer and also shows your Tax-free Coding Balance in weekly and monthly amounts. Your employer deducts this amount from your gross pay each week/month before calculating the tax that needs to be deducted.

Please remember, it's your responsibility to check the details on your Coding Notice and to inform the Revenue Service if you need to make any changes.

You can do this here: www.gov.gg/revenueservice/changeemployer if changing your employer, or for all other changes by phone on 01481 225700 or by email to: checkmycoding@gov.gg

By keeping your Coding Notice accurate, you will be taxed appropriately throughout the year.
