To add a new proposition 4 as follows:

“4. That in order fully to realise its potential as the Bailiwick of Guernsey’s airline and in accordance with two of the aims in the States’ Strategic Plan agreed by the States in 2013 – namely ‘to protect and improve the Island’s economic future and the Island’s ... unique cultural identity and rich heritage’ – serious consideration should be given to rebranding Aurigny Air Services to a name that clearly positions it as a Guernsey airline; and therefore to agree that by no later than February 2017 the States Trading Supervisory Board, after consultation with other relevant States’ committees and the airline, shall lay before the States a Policy Letter setting out recommendations on whether or not a rebrand should take place and, if one is recommended, a timetable for its implementation that could coincide with 1 March 2018, which is the airline’s 50th anniversary.”
